The Star and Sentinel.

NOTHING BUT LEAVES.

Nothing but leaves. The spirit grieves
Over a wasted life;
Sin committed while conscience slept,
Promises made and never kept;
Hatred, battles and strife—
Nothing but leaves.

Nothing but leaves; no gathering sheaves
Of life's fair ripened grain;
Words, idle words, for earnest deeds;
We sow our seeds—lo! tares and weeds
We reap for toil and pain—
Nothing but leaves.

Nothing but leaves; memory weaves
No veil to screen the past;
As we retrace our weary way,
Counting each lost and misspent day,
We sadly find at last
Nothing but leaves.

And shall we meet our Father so,
Bearing our withered leaves?
The Saviour looks for perfect fruit—
We stand before Him, humbled, mute,
Writing the words He breathes—
Nothing but leaves.

BREAD BAKING AND GHOSTLY WARNINGS.

It was in the days of our grandmothers, when there were brick ovens in the land, that Mr. Hubbard bought his house,—the haunted house of R———,—very much against his wife's will. It was a lonely house. It was next to a graveyard which, though long unused, was not very cheerful, and it had the reputation of a ghost. However, Mr. Hubbard did not believe in ghosts, was too cheerful to be depressed by warnings, and never intended to be lonely.

"Mother Hubbard," he said, when his wife shook her head over the purchase, "I got the house cheap, and it's a good one.—You'll like it when you get there. If you don't why then talk."

So the house was bought, and into it the Hubbard family moved. There was scarcely a chance for a ghost to show his face in such a household of boys and girls. The rosy-faced master of the house and his little wife and ten of them. It was in view of the eternal cry of "mother" that the jolly husband had dubbed his Martha Jane "Mother Hubbard," using it in jest at first, and at last because of an old habit. Hearing it, the rest of R——— fell into the way of calling the motherly soul Mother Hubbard, so that it was more her name by far than her baptismal Martha Jane.

Having once expostulated and "spoken out her mind," Mother Hubbard gave up the point. She scrubbed and scoured, tacked down carpets and put up curtains, and owned that the place was pretty, and as not a ghost appeared for a week, made up her mind that there was no such inhabitant, and even began not to mind the tombstones. So the house was got to rights, at last, and baking day came about. In the press of business they had had a great deal of baker's bread, and were tired of it.

Mrs. Hubbard had never enjoyed setting a batch of bread to rise as she did that which was to be eaten for the first time in the new house. "For I can't get up an appetite for stuff that nobody knows who has had the making of," said mother Hubbard, "and all puffy and alumy besides." So into the oven went the bread, and out it came at the proper time even and brown and beautiful as loaves could be.

Mother Hubbard turned them up on their sides as she drew them forth, and they stood in the long bread-tray, glorious proofs of her skill and of the excellence of the oven, when Tommy Hubbard bounded in. Tommy was four, and at that age one is prone to believe that anything will bear our weight. Tommy, therefore, anxious to inspect the new made bread, swung himself off his feet by clutching the edge of the bread-tray, and over it came, loaves and Tommy and all. Mother Hubbard flew to the rescue and picked up the loaves. All were dusted and in the tray again but one. That lay bottom upwards under the table.

"A bothering child, to give me so much trouble," she said, as she crawled under the table. "Ah—oh—ah—dear, dear, dear—oh my—" And there on the floor sat Mother Hubbard, screaming, ringing her hands and shaking her head. The children screamed also in concert. Mr. Hubbard rushed in from the garden where he was at work.

"What is the matter, mother?" he gasped.

Mrs. Hubbard pointed to the bottom of the loaf lying in her lap. "Look there, and ask me?" she said. "Its a warning. William, I'm going to be taken from 'em all."

And, as Mr. Hubbard looked, he saw on the loaf a "death's head and cross bones," as plainly engraven as they possibly could be.

"It's accident," said Mr. Hubbard. "Such queer cracks do come, you know. Don't fret."

But Mother Hubbard was in a troubled state of mind. "The stories about the haunted house were true," she said; "and the spirits have marked the loaf. I'm afraid it is a warning." And the loaf was put aside, for even Mr. Hubbard did not dare to eat any of it.

Mrs. Hubbard got over her fright at last, but the news of the awfully marked loaf spread through R———, and people came to the Hubbards all the week to look at it. It was a death's-head and cros-bones, certainly; every one saw that at a glance; but believed that it was a warning of approaching death; some that the spirits "wanted to frighten the Hubbards away." This latter supposition inspired Mrs. Hubbard with courage. Finally she leaned to the belief, and when another baking day arrived, put her loaves into the oven once more, prepared for cross-bones, and not to be frightened by them. The loaves baked as before. They came out brown and crusty. Mother Hubbard turned each in her hands. There were no cross-bones visible; but on the last were sundry characters or letters. What! No one could tell until there dropped in for a chat a certain printer of the neighborhood, accustomed to reading things backwards.

"Halloo!" said he, "that's curious! That is curious—r-e-s-u-r-g-a-m—resurgam (I shall rise again);—that's what's on the loaf—resurgam."

"It's what they put on the tombs, ain't it?" asked Mother Hubbard, faintly.

"Well, yes," said Mr. Hubbard; "but it ain't so bad as cross-bones and skulls."

Mother Hubbard shook her head. "It's even solemner," said the little woman, who was not as good a linguist as a bread-maker. "I feel confident, William, that I shall soon be 'resurgamed;' and what will those dear children do then?"

And now that the second loaf was before her eyes, marked awfully as was the first, Mother Hubbard really grew thin and pale and lost all of her cheerfulness. "I have a presentiment," she said over and over again, "that the third baking will decide who the warning points to. I believe it's meant for me, and time will show. Don't you see how thin I'm getting?" And though Mr. Hubbard laughed, he also began to be troubled. The third baking day was one of gloom. Solemnly as to a funeral the family assembled to assist in the drawing. Five loaves came out markless; but one remained.—Mother Hubbard's hand trembled, but she drew it forth; she laid it in the tray; she turned it softly about. At last she exposed the lower surface. On it were letters printed backwards; plain enough to read this time, and arranged thus:

"Died, April 2nd.
Lamented by
Her large family."

"It's me," cried Mrs. Hubbard. "I'm to go to-morrow. This is the first. I do feel faint. Yes I do. It's awful and so sudden," and Mother Hubbard fainted away in the arms of the most terrified of husbands. The children screamed, the cat mewed, the dog barked. The eldest boy ran for the doctor. People flocked to the Hubbards.—The loaf was examined. Yes, there was Mother Hubbard's "warning"—her call to quit this world.

She lay in her bed bidding good bye to her family and friends, her strength going fast. She read her Bible and tried not to grieve too much. The doctor shook his head. The clergyman prayed with her; nobody doubted that her end was at hand, for people were very superstitious in those days. They had been up all night with good little Mother Hubbard, and dawn was breaking, and with it she felt sure that she must go; when clatter over the road and up to the door came a horse, on the horse a man. He alighted. He rattled the knocker. He rushed in. There was no stopping him. Up stairs he went to Mother Hubbard's room, and bolted in. Every one stared at him. He took off his hat.

"Parding!" he said, "I heered Miss Hubbard was a dyin'. That she'd had warnin's on her bakin's. I come over to explain.—You see I was sexton o' the church here two years ago, and I know all about it.—You needn't die o' skeer just yet, Miss Hubbard, for there's neither spirits nor devils about, nor yet warnin's. What marks the loaves is old Mrs. Finkle's tomb stone. I took it for an oven bottom, seein' thar war no survivors and bricks were dear. The last folks before you didn't have 'em printed off cos they made pan loaves, but we was used to 'em ourselves. Cross bones and skulls in the gingerbread we didn't heed, and I never thought o' carin' for the resurgam. So you see how it is, Miss Hubbard, I'm sorry you was skeered. I'd orter a mentioned it when I sold the property."

Nobody said a word. The minister shut his hymn book. The doctor walked to the window—there was deathly silence. Mother Hubbard broke it.

"Father," she said, "the first thing you do, get a new bottom to that oven." And the tone assured the assemblage of friends that Mother Hubbard was not going to die just then. Indeed, she sat up the very next day, and as soon as the oven was rebottomed invited every body to a tea-drinking, at which no one discovered awful warnings on the bread, or ghostly printings on the ginge-cake.

WHERE WOOD COMES FROM.—If we were to take up a handful of soil and examine it under the microscope, we should probably find it to contain a number of fragments of wood, small broken pieces of the branches, or leaves, or other parts of the tree. If we could examine it chemically, we should find yet more strikingly that it was nearly the same as wood in its composition. Perhaps, then, it may be said, the young plant obtains it wood from the earth in which it grows. The following experiment will show whether this conjecture is likely to be correct or not. Two hundred pounds of earth were dried in an oven, and afterwards put into a large earthen vessel; the earth was then moistened with rainwater, and a willow tree, weighing five pounds, was planted therein. During the space of five years the earth was carefully watered with rain water or pure water. The willow grew and flourished, and, to prevent the earth being mixed with fresh earth, or dirt being blown upon it by the winds, it was covered with a metal plate full of very minute holes, which would exclude everything but air from getting access to the earth below it.—After growing in the earth for five years, the tree was removed, and, on being weighed, was found to have gained one hundred and sixty pounds. And the estimate did not include the weight of the leaves or dead branches which in five years fell from the tree. Now came the application of the test. Was all this obtained from the earth? It had not sensibly diminished; but, in order to make the experiment conclusive, it was again dried in the oven, and put in the balance. Astoniseing was the result—the earth weighed only two ounces less than it did when the willow was first planted in it! yet the tree had gained one hundred and sixty-four pounds. Manifestly, then the wood thus gained in this space of time was not obtained from the earth; we are therefore compelled to repeat our question, "Where does the wood come from?" We are left with only two alternatives; the water with which it was refreshed, or the air in which it lived. It can be clearly shown that it was not due to the water; we are, consequently, unable to resist the perplexing and wonderful conclusion—it was derived from the air—Life of a Tree.

CARE OF TEETH.—Rousseau said that no women with fine teeth could be ugly. Any female mouth with a good set of teeth is kissable. The too early loss of the first teeth has an unfavorable influence upon the beauty and duration of the second. The youngest should accordingly be made to take care of them. All that is necessary is to brush them several times a day with a little ordinary soap or magnesia and water.

After eating the particles of food should be carefully removed from the teeth by means of a toothpick of quill or wood, but never of metal, and by a thread passed now and then between the teeth. Camphorated and acid tooth powders are injurious both to the enamel and the gums, and if employed every particle should be removed from the gums by carefully rinsing. The habit which some ladies have of using a bit of lemon, though it may whiten the teeth and give a temporary firmness and color to the gums, is fatal to the enamel, as are all acids.

No one, young or old, should turn their jaws into nut crackers, and it is even dangerous for women to bite off, as they often do, the ends of the thread in sewing. It is not safe to bring very hot food or drink especially if immediately followed by any thing cold, in contact with the teeth.

A SWEET TEMPER.—No trait of character is more valuable in a woman than the possession of a sweet temper. Home can never be made happy without it. It is a flower that springs up in our pathway, reviving and cheering us. Let a man go home at night wearied by the toils of the day, and how soothing is a word dictated by a good disposition! It is sunshine falling on his heart. Study, then, to acquire and retain a sweet temper; it is more valuable than gold; it captivates more than beauty; and retains all its freshness and power.

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN.

Dr. Holland ("Timothy Titcomb") writes from England to the Springfield Republican:

I confess to a little disappointment in the Englishman physically. No American, passing through the streets of London, would imagine that he was among a people superior, physically, to his own. I speak only of the men. The English woman is larger and stronger than her American sister, but I am yet to be convinced of the physical superiority of the English woman to the American. * * * * I have the authority of a competent and candid English women for the statement that the American woman is the handsomer. There can be no question, I think, that the average American girl is more beautiful than her cousin across the water. She has a greater delicacy of feature, and generally a finer make-up. She matures, earlier, and, it is quite likely, fades sooner, but the fact that she is prettier is not to be disputed. The girl here is also under the usages of English society, a suppressed creature, without the freedom that savors vivacity. The American girl is perfectly at home in society before the English girl sees society at all, or has ever been permitted to escape the eye of her governess or her mother.

"The American girl may be too forward, but I am sure that the English girl suffers too great bondage. Female education in the two countries differs greatly, and, singular, as it may seem, the education of the English girl is more showy than that of the American. As a general thing, the English girl knows little or nothing of mathematics and the natural sciences. These branches in America absorb a great deal of time, as you know, and you will find multitudes of American girls who are adepts in them.—That, in the education of the English girl, which strikes an American, is their knowledge of language, of literature, of music and of drawing. Everything which contributes to show in society is acquired by the English girl. I cannot recall among my English traveling acquaintances a lady who could not speak French, and several of them have spoken French, Italian and German with entire facility. With these languages at command, with a wide acquaintance with history and belles lettres, and with the accomplishments of sketching and playing the piano, it must be acknowledged that the English girl shows for all that she is, and that for social purposes her acquisitions are greatly superior to those of the American girl.

OUR CHILDREN.—The subject of raising children is of more consequence than gaining honor, distinction, or wealth. It outweighs all others. It ought to be studied more deeply than any profession or business. We ought to be more interested in it than in anything else we do. We must produce a revolution in this matter. Rearing children must be made a study. Nothing can be so interesting or instructive.—The father or mother who knows how to properly rear and educate a family, is greatly wiser than any professor. Those who can live with and daily see the growth of a child, observe every unfolding of its nature into beauty and life, behold more of God than is seen anywhere else in nature. To learn how to guide all this development is to become wise indeed; for, after all, the child educates the parent more than the parent educates the child. It is a school for parents they cannot well afford to lose. To know all the laws that govern and favor its right growth before birth; to know how to feed, clothe, to train, to educate, to amuse play with, and make it love you; to know how to teach it to be wise, brave, truthful, industrious, mirthful, and sober, is to be quite able to receive every favor God can bestow.

DRAMATIC.—On a certain occasion, at a certain dramatic temple, a farce was in course of representation, and had just reached the scene where the lover enters seeking, almost distracted, his lady-love, who had just concealed herself a moment before (in full view of the audience), in the "garden," behind some canvass representation of bushes.

"Where, oh Heaven! where has my Julia fled?" exclaimed the actor, in despairing accents, looking around everywhere but in the right place.

A specimen of the genus Yankee, in the pit, who had hitherto been all attention, now exhibited symptoms of impatience, and as the actor repeated his impassioned inquiry, he was answered by our excited Yankee with—

"Right behind you, you darned fool! in the tater patch!"

The effect of this can better be imagined than described—the applause was tremendous.

LITTLE THINGS AND LITTLE PEOPLE.—Little things and little people have often brought great things to pass. The large world in which we exist is made up of little particles as small as the sands on the seashore. The vast sea is composed of small drops of water. The little busy bees, how much honey they gather! Do not be discouraged because you are little. A little star shines brightly in the sky on a dark night, and may be the means of saving many a poor sailor from shipwreck; and a little Christian may do a great deal of good if he or she will try. There is nothing like trying.—Dr. Chalmers.

FATAL SHOOTING.—On Tuesday, while a boy and girl, children of Richard Cornell, of New Rochelle, New York, were playing with a gun, the boy, aged thirteen, playfully pointed it at his sister, aged eight, and shot her in the abdomen, making a fearful wound, from which she died next morning. The gun was loaded that morning, the first time for many months.

"MY SON," said a fond parent to his offspring, after having surveyed the wonders of the Crystal Palace, "my son, if you can tell me which of these marvellous works of man pleases you the most, I will give you a half a crown." "The veal and ham pies," responded the young hopeful; "give me the money."

"PAPA," said Tommy, the other day, "is it a sin to change one's mind?" "Well, no, my boy; why do you ask?" "Oh, you know," replied the five-year old, "I was to be a doctor." "Oh, yes, I remember," said the father, "what then?" "Well, if you please, I think now that I'd rather keep a candy store!"

A CHOLERIC old gentleman, becoming enraged at the stupidity of an aged and faithful servant exclaimed, "Zounds! you dolt, I shall go out of my wits at your dullness!" To which the honest old servitor replied, "Well, there is comfort, master—you won't have to go far!"

THEMISTOCLES had a son, who was the darling of his mother. "This little fellow," said Themistocles, "is the sovereign of all Greece." "How so?" inquired a friend. "Why, he governs his mother, his mother governs me, I govern the Athenians, and the Athenians govern all Greece."

The Star & Sentinel.

Friday, Feb. 26, 1869.

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 15,000 persons.

J. N. DU BARRY, General Superintendent of the Northern Central Railway has been elected Vice President—A. R. FISKE, of the Shamokin Valley Railroad, succeeding Mr. Du Barry as General Superintendent.

GENERAL GRANT recently took occasion to rebuke the attempt to create a breach between himself and the Republican party, and remarked that after ANDREW JOHNSON'S attempt and failure, no one but a madman would repeat it.

THE State Senate having refused to recognize the right of the House to appoint 27 additional pasters and folders, by refusing to pass a bill for their pay, the House has been compelled to back down, and last week passed a resolution to discharge the additional officers on condition that the Senate consent to their being paid to date.

A STATE Temperance Convention met in Harrisburg on Tuesday, Hon. S. B. CHASE, of Susquehanna county, presiding. Resolutions denouncing the License System, and urging the duty of Temperance men to demand the nomination and election of friends of Prohibition to the Legislature were adopted, as also one asking the Legislature to submit the question of Prohibition to a popular vote. An executive committee was appointed, with authority to appoint sub-committees in the different counties, in order to bring about concert of action.

ON Tuesday, in the House, Mr. Rogers, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a suppliment to the $300 exemption act of 1849, increasing the exemption to $500 for married men and prohibiting a waiver of the exemption. We hope to see this latter provision, at least, enacted into law. The $300 exemption act is a humane provision designed to protect the families of improvident or unfortunate debtors.—Practically, it is defeated by the giving of obligations waiving the benefits of the exemption act. In nine cases out of ten these obligations are given by reckless or thriftless men, whose innocent families suffer the consequences.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON seems determined before going out of office to satisfy the world that the great mistake of his life was the declaration, when the bullet of Booth made him President, that Treason was a Crime, and that Traitors would have to take a backseat in Governmental affairs.—Having long since recanted this article of faith, he makes haste to atone for the mistake by announcing a new one, to the effect that Treason is not a Crime, and that Loyal men only should be proscribed. The practical application of the new faith is found in doing honor to the remains of the dead assassins of President Lincoln, and the unconditional pardon of their living confederates in crime.

THE Grecian bend, figuratively speaking, threatens to be outrivalled by the President's stoop. Formerly A. J. threw his favors toward condemned counterfeiters. Now anything in the shape of a convict is sufficient to warrant the exercise of his pardoning power. The conviction of offenders against the Revenue laws in the U. States Courts, has become a farce, as the President pardons the whisky gamblers and thieves as rapidly as the Courts sentence them. The last instance of his Excellency's tendencies in the way of a general jail delivery is the pardon of a dishonest contractor, named Dempsey, convicted in the Washington Criminal Court of assaulting a witness who testified to his defrauding the Government. The ink was scarcely dry on the record of the Court, before Dempsey produced a pardon. A few days more will end A. J's capacity for arresting justice and shielding crime; and the saturnalia of the thieves and robbers who have been so long battening on the public treasury will come to a close.

THE State Guard says the Maryland Commissioners, in charge of the Antietam Cemetery, visited Harrisburg last week to secure an appropriation from the Legislature of Pennsylvania, in aid of that Cemetery. It will be remembered that Gov. Geary, in his message of 1868, referred to the fact that the Cemetery in question had been, or was to be, used as a burial place in common for loyalists and rebels, and recommended that while this system was continued, Pennsylvania should withhold any appropriation to that Cemetery. The Commissioners, in an interview with Governor Geary, were politely informed that, while they persisted in carrying out the idea of making Antietam a burial place for traitors, they could expect no appropriation from a loyal people in aid of such a project. The Commissioners, in return, assured the Governor that it was their intention to make the Cemetery exclusively a resting place for the remains of the Union dead, and that a locality had been selected, different and distinct, for the remains of the rebel dead, for the care and beautifying of which no money appropriated by loyal States, like Pennsylvania, would be used.

SPECULATIONS as to Gen. GRANT'S Cabinet still continue, but nothing has as yet leaked out as to its probable composition. The General, while courteously listening to the suggestions of his political friends, wisely keeps his own counsels. He does not avoid or decline interviews with [illegible] wish to converse with him on Cabinet or any other subject, but on the other hand seems anxious to ascertain and weigh opinions. His principal reason for withholding from all, even from the gentlemen themselves, the names of those whom he intends to invite to seats in his Cabinet, is that it is possible that in some of the many interviews he daily holds something may be said which might induce him to change his mind; and his silence will enable him to do this without giving offence, or wounding natural susceptibilities. One of the latest on dits is that in a recent conversation Gen. GRANT declared he would invite no purely military or naval officer into the Cabinet, as he thought it would not be for the benefit of the Government, the army or the navy, to appoint an army or navy officer to a Cabinet position. He regarded such selections as detrimental to the military and navy service, and not beneficial to the civil branch of the Government.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Congress has but five or six working days left in which to finish up its business—the session terminating by law on Thursday next at 12 o'clock. Several of the most important bills will have to go over to the 41st Congress, which will convene on the same day, when the present Congress expires. To allow time for the Inauguration ceremonies, which will take place at 12 o'clock on Thursday next, March 4, a joint resolution has been adopted fixing the hour for the meeting of the new Congress at 3 P. M. Mr. COLFAX will resign the Speakership of the House on the day preceding, Wednesday, March 3, when the House will proceed at once to the election of a Speaker for the balance of the Fortieth Congress. This resignation is necessary, because Mr. COLFAX must take the oath of office as Vice President of the United States before 12 o'clock on Thursday, March 4, in order that he may administer the oath of office to the newly elected Senators and call the Senate to order at 12 o'clock on that day.

On Saturday, the House took up the Senate amendment to the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, and by a vote of 140 yeas to 33 nays adopted the proposition of Mr. Bigham, as follows:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote and hold office shall not be denied or abridged by any State on account of race, color, nativity, property, creed, or previous condition of servitude."

A motion to strike out the words "and hold office," failed by a vote of 71 yeas to 97 nays.

The Senate having non-concurred in the House amendment, Messrs. Stewart, Conkling and Edmunds were appointed on the part of the Senate, and Messrs. Boutwell, Bingham and Logan, on the part of the House, as a Committee of Conference.

The Republican Senators in caucus have agreed to postpone the bill repealing the Tenure of Office act for the consideration of the next Congress.

Among the bills which have become laws by the ten days' limit—the President having neither signed nor disapproved them within that time, after their reception from Congress—is one removing from office in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas those persons who cannot take the oath prescribed by the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution.

The President sent in his last veto, that of the Copper Tariff bill, and both Houses promptly passed the bill over his veto by a two thirds vote.

A Bill authorizing the Secretary of War to take possession of the National Cemeteries at Gettysburg and Antietam; and also one repealing the act providing that the General-in-Chief shall have his headquarters in Washington, and all orders from the President must be issued through him, have passed both Houses.

In the House of Representatives on Wednesday, Mr. Schenck's bill to strengthen the public credit, and to legalize gold contracts, was passed after lengthy debate, yeas 119, nay 61. It pledges the faith of the United States to pay in coin or its equivalent all the interest bearing obligations, and provides that any contract hereafter made specifically payable in coin shall be legal and valid, and may be enforced according to its terms.

A BILL to regulate the franking privilege, by proscribing the use of fac-simile stamps, and requiring franks to be endorsed by persons using them, has passed both houses of Congress.—An amendment to abolish the franking privilege altogether failed in the Senate by only two votes—yeas 16, nays 18. The full text of the bill is as follows:

Be it enacted, &c., That it shall not be lawful for any officer of the Government, member of Congress, or other person entitled by law to the franking privilege, to exercise said privilege otherwise than by his or her written autograph signature upon matter franked, and all letters or other mail matter not thus franked by the written signature of a person entitled by law to exercise said privilege, shall be charged with the rates of postage which are now or may hereafter be established by law.

THERE is likely to be a beautiful "row" between the "Young Democracy" and the Old Hunker Copperheads in the next Democratic State Convention. The Old Hunkers are pressing such men as Judge Packer, of Carbon, and Gen. Cass, of Allegheny, for Governor, while the progressives are determined to throw all such dead weights overboard. The Venango Spectator, for instance, gives Judge Packer the following sock-dologer:

"Some of the papers that worship mammon are talking about Asa Packer for Governor. Wouldn't it be better to hold him in reserve to receive the vote of Pennsylvania in succeeding Presidential elections?—It worked so beautifully last July in the New York convention that the delegates who originated that brilliant stroke of policy will never be willing to vote for anybody else. Let us hold Mr. Packer in reserve and get out a pamphlet."

The Lock Haven Democrat talks out still plainer, and gives the Old Hunkers to understand, once for all, that they must take back seats. Referring to the Packer movement it says:

"We plead guilty, however, to a strong disbelief in the ability of the Democracy of Pennsylvania to elect him (Packer) or any other candidate belonging to what, with all due deference, we shall term as the fossilized school. The miserable, degrading and disgraceful conduct of the Pennsylvania delegation at New York, controlled as its action was by that class of politicians, together with the lamentable results of the campaign in this State last fall, the legitimate result of the bungling inefficiency not to say stupidity displayed in the convention of the Fourth of July, convince us that a certain class of politicians—in Pennsylvania at least—have had their day. The approaching canvass will afford a splendid opportunity for them to maintain a masterly inactivity."

GEN. GRANT, on Tuesday last, informed Mr. DICKEY of the Pennsylvania delegation, that Pennsylvania would have a member of his Cabinet in the person of a gentleman whom he knew well, an original Republican, and who would be as much surprised when his name was announced as any man in the country. Speculation is busy, to ascertain who is intended for Cabinet honors. A very probable suggestion is that the gentleman alluded to is Hon. WILLIAM MCKENNAN, of Washington. Mr. McK. is a son of Hon. T. M. T. MCKENNAN, and is a superior lawyer. He has avoided public life, never having accepted office except as a Member of the Peace Congress of 1861. He has great purity of character, and is fully capable to discharge any duty which may be assigned him.

IT is said that Secretary SEWARD has granted leave of absence to several of our Ministers abroad, and among them is one for REVERDY JOHNSON, who, it is understood, desires to return to the United States for a short time. Gen. GRANT will doubtless extend Mr. JOHNSON'S leave of absence indefinitely, and send to England a Minister who will assert the dignity of the Republic, instead of hob-nobbing with the builders of piratical cruisers and Rebel sympathizers.

GRADUALLY we are getting at the [illegible] conspiracy of the Democratic party to control the last Presidential election by fraud.—The boldness and extent of these frauds, in our own State, New York, New Jersey, Indiana, and other States, showed that they were the fruits of a well-concerted and wide-spread conspiracy; and no person has doubted that New York State was carried for Seymour and Hoffman by fraud. Congress, deeming this bold assault on the integrity of the elective franchise of a character demanding official scrutiny, appointed a Committee to look into the matter. This Committee has been pursuing its investigations for several months, in the face of persistent attempts to obstruct the investigation, and now submit their report. Several weeks ago, we gave some extracts from sworn testimony adduced before a Legislative investigating committee, by which our readers got an insight into the way in which things were managed in Philadelphia at the October and November elections. The Philadelphia frauds, however, villainous as they were, sink into insignificance compared with those perpetrated in New York. In another column we give some extracts from the report of the Congressional investigating committee, which should command the attention of every honest citizen. The most alarming feature in the whole matter lies in the fact that these gigantic frauds are the work of prominent Democratic politicians in high official position who control the entire judicial and executive machinery in the districts where the frauds were perpetrated, and throw the shield of official protection over the scoundrels used by them to consummate the great crime against Republican institutions. How the evil is to be met, is a grave question. But met it must be, and the Republic looks to Congress for such legislation as will prevent similar villainy at future elections.

LAST week, in the House of Representatives, an effort was made to increase the salary of members of the Legislature from $1000 to 1500. Mr. NICHOLSON, of Beaver, demanded the yeas and nays, and the proposition failed, the vote standing—yeas 28, nays 60. We do not find the name of Dr. DILL on record—whether because he was absent, or because he "dodged" with others, does not appear.

The proposition originated with Mr. McMiller, a Democratic member from Montgomery, was warmly supported by Mr. Davis, Democrat of Philadelphia, and received the votes of a majority of the Democratic members, while a majority of the Republicans voted against it. The latter voted, 10 for and 44 against the proposition; while the Democrats voted, 18 for and 16 against it. At the close of the vote, a "scene" occurred by some members appearing within the bar asking to be permitted to record their votes against the bill. Mr. Davis objected, saying that he had openly and boldly voted for the bill, and didn't believe in accommodating men who wanted the bill passed, but afraid to assume the responsibility "dodged," and then come in to put themselves "right on the record." He was down on "dodgers."

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CARROLL.—Measles of a malignant type prevails in Carroll county, several deaths having occured.—The robbers of the New Windsor Bank have been arrested in New York, and most of the stolen bonds recovered.

CUMBERLAND.—Dr. Schoeppe, of Carlisle, has been arrested and is now in prison on the charge of causing the death of Miss Stenneck by administering poison; the post mortem examination of the body by Prof. Aiken, of Baltimore, showing traces of poison in the stomach.

DAUPHIN.—An accident occured at the State Arsenal, Harrisburg, on the 22d, while firing a salute in honor of the day. A cannon was prematurely discharged, blowing off the right hand of George Church and the left hand of Marshall Quay.

FRANKLIN.—Levi Palmer, near Upton, had his leg broken on the 17th inst., by a tree, which he was felling, striking him above the knee.—Wm. Ingelfritz, of Greencastle, had his hand badly lacerated in some machinery in his establishment, last week.

WASHINGTON.—Four men, Frederick Hartman, Geo. Steinburg, Aaron Deamer, and Wm. Brown, confined in the Hagerstown jail on various charges, made their escape on the night of the 17th inst.—Mrs. Davis, wife of John Davis, of Cavetown, was seized by two ruffians, on Saturday night about 9 o'clock, while returning from the bake-house only a few yards from the house, gagged, her dress torn, &c., their object, as is supposed, being robbery, as she had some $50 on her person. In the struggle, the villains became alarmed and left without securing the money.—Miss Sallie Thompson, of Hagerstown, on Tuesday last, before retiring had occasion to use some alcohol as a wash, which became ignited from a candle near by, setting fire to the room, and severely burning Miss T. An alarm being given, neighbors rushed in and succeeded in extinguished the fire, the damage being confined to the room in which it originated.

YORK.—The warehouse of E. L. Cramer, at Hetrick's, Codorus township, was robbed on Tuesday evening of last week, and afterward, fired and burned down.—Jeremiah Melhorn has been appointed Tax Collector for Hanover.

THE END OF INFAMY.—The first signal public act of Andrew Johnson's Presidential career was the hanging of the assassins of President Lincoln, and he is about closing it with a free pardon to their confederates. His whole career has been theatrical, commencing with a bloody tragedy and ending with a broad farce. Even in the case of Mrs. Surratt, who was recommended to Executive clemency by the commission which tried her, he insisted upon her blood as due to outraged justice, but now imprisonment is too heavy a punishment to those who, equally with her, counselled, countenanced and aided the conspirators.

A FEW weeks ago a young man named Barmore, a detective of Nashville, Tenn., was taken from a railroad train by a gang of masked men, since which time his fate has been a mystery until Saturday last.—On that day a colored man found a dead body in Duck River, near Columbia. This proved to be the remains of the missing detective. A rope was around his neck, the end forming a noose, as if he had been tied to something. The hands were tied behind his back with a linen handkerchief. A valuable diamond ring was on one finger.—He was evidently not murdered for money.

MADRID despatches announce that the members of the Provisional Government have resigned, and that the Cortes has entrusted Marshal Serrano will full executive powers and with authority to form a new Ministry. A vote of thanks to the retiring Ministers was opposed with unanimity by Republican members, but passed by the House. General Prim made a speech declaring that the late dynasty would never reascend the throne of Spain. General de Rhoda is to succeed General Dulce as Captain General of Cuba.

THE woods in the immediate neighborhood of Campbell Court House, Virginia, are being ravaged and destroyed by a very extensive fire, which is also doing great damage to the fencing.

GENERAL NEWS.

[illegible] thousand sheep were killed and twenty thousand more worried by dogs in Ohio last year.

A MAN in Ohio is father of five boys named Fremont, Lincoln, Grant, Sherman and Sheridan.

WASHINGTON is rapidly filling up with people anxious to witness Gen. Grant's inauguration as President.

A PETITION is now before the French Senate, asking for the removal of the remains of Louis Phillippe from England to France.

INTEMPERANCE has become so prevalent in Sweden that the Legislature is considering the propriety of forbidding the manufacture of spirits.

SENATOR Saulsbury met with an accident at Washington on Saturday evening, whereby he broke two bones of his leg, near the ankle.

THE German Republicans of New York have pledged themselves to the support of any reforms in the Naturalization laws required to preserve the purity of the ballot.

THE small-pox has prevailed to an alarming extent in some of the large Western cities. Many cases in St. Louis, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, and Chicago, have proved fatal.

☞At the Fulton street (N. Y.) Daily Prayer Meeting, last week, prayers were offered for the children of the Gettysburg Soldiers' Orphan Home, in compliance with a request from the Chaplain of the Institution.

IT is proposed in Philadelphia to bring the remains of William Penn from England to Pennsylvania, and to erect a splendid monument over them. They were buried in a leaden coffin and their transportation to America will not be difficult.

JUDGE WEISEL, a Republican, of Hagerstown, Md., who ran for Congress against Mr. Hallowell, has determined to test the latter's election, on the grounds of frauds and illegal voting. The general impression is that he will be successful.

THE friends of General Sherman have purchased the residence now occupied by General Grant, on I street, near New Jersey avenue, Washington, for $65,000, and intend presenting it to him directly after he becomes General-in-Chief in place of the President elect.

THE Emperor of China has recently issued an edict forbidding the rebuilding of destroyed idol temples, and the repairing such as are decayed, excepting the temples of Confucius. Christianity is everywhere tolerated by a late proclamation of the Emperor, thus opening the whole country to Christian effort.

THE telegraph brings the brief particulars of another terrible Kuklux tragedy in Tennessee. A party of three desperadoes went to the house of Col. Thomas Dickens and commenced an indiscriminate firing upon the inmates. Dickens and another man escaped with severe wounds, but two other persons, one a colored woman, were killed outright.

THE advices from Cuba are so mixed and conflicting that it is impossible to gather much reliable information from them. The Government prints in Havana report successive victories over the insurgents, but it is evident that these victories cannot be at all conclusive, as the insurrection appears not only to holds its own, but to increase in proportions.

DETAILED accounts from the seat of war in Paraguay fully confirm the telegraphic despatches which announced the defeat and flight of Lopez, and the occupation of the capital of Paraguay, Asuncion, by Brazilian troops. The severe losses which Lopez suffered in the battle at Angostura, and by the subsequent capture of that fortress, must have broken his power of resistance and virtually finished the war.

AN extraordinary ceremony occurred on Sunday in the Jewish synagogue, on Harrison street, in Chicago. Miss Mary Gilmore, an intelligent young lady, of Yankee parentage, publicly renounced Christianity and embraced Judaism. A large congregation witnessed the ceremonies. In the evening Miss Gilmore embraced an Israelite, being married in the same synagogue to Bernard Berliau, a wealthy business man in New York.

THE Maine Farmer says that Mr. Drewry N. White, one of the farmers of Dixfield, made the past season over three tons of cheese from twenty-two cows.—This will amount, at eighteen cents per pound, the price at which he sells it, to $1,080.00. He raised seventy-five bushels of beans—enough to constitute him deacon for seven years—dried 1,200 pounds of apples, and raised thirty five bushels of wheat on one and one-fourth acres of land.

A CLEVELAND wife tried to cause her husband to abandon smoking by inducing a cigar manufacturer to wrap a Chinese fire cracker in one of the "weeds." On Monday the unsuspecting husband was smoking the cigar with great satisfaction, until the fire communicated with the fuse, when to his great horror, the explosion came and he was surprised that his head was left upon his shoulders. Fortunately, his eyes were not blown out.

THERE was considerable excitement among the Roman Catholics of Auburn New York, on Sunday. The Bishop of the diocese had ordered the removal of a favorite clergyman. The congregation resisted the order, refused to allow the Bishop's appointee to celebrate mass, and forced him out of the church. Resolutions denouncing the course of the Bishop, and declaring that the new pastor should not be allowed to occupy the parsonage, were subsequently adopted at a large meeting of the congregation.

PACIFIC RAILROAD EXCURSION.—The Pacific Railroad Company have initiated the necessary arrangements for a grand excursion through from New York to San Francisco, commemorative of the completion of the road. The time is not fixed yet, but it is expected to start on or about the 1st of July. Invitations have been extended to many of the leading railroad capitalists and bankers of Europe, but in no case will the crowd exceed two hundred and fifty, including the delegation from Wall street. It is thought quite probable that President Grant will be one of the party. Two trains are to leave simultaneously, one from this end, and the other from San Francisco.

SOME years since, a wild goose was shot in Washington Territory, and a few grains of wheat were taken from his craw. Being very large and full, they were preserved and planted. The yield was found to be so great as to lead to its propagation, until this variety, which is known in the Territory as the "Goose Wheat," has become a standard one in that section of the country. Samples of this wheat were recently sent to the Agricultural Department at Washington. Upon examining the samples at the museum, of which there are some 2,000 varieties, the same wheat was found, being one of the samples sent from the Paris Exposition, and grown in Cuenca, in Spain.

THE Burdell Murder mystery is at last solved. A convict in Sing Sing Prison, New York, named Jeffards, who recently died, has confessed that he was the murderer, and that Mrs. Cunningham was privy to it, and encouraged him to commit the deed, but gave him no personal assistance in the murder. Jeffards was let out of the house by Mrs. C., who managed successfully to cover up his tracks and cast suspicion in other directions. The Burdell murder occurred in Bond street, New York, about 13 years ago, and occasioned intense excitement at the time, and while the trial of Mrs. Cunningham was in progress.—Mrs. C. was acquitted, and when last heard from was living in California.

THE NEW YORK FRAUDS.

OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

WHOLESALE VILLAINY.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

Judge Lawrence, Chairman of the Congressional Committee appointed to investigate the New York election frauds, has prepared a voluminous report, to be presented to Congress. We give a few extracts to show the extent and nature of these frauds. Says Judge Lawrence:

"But appalling and startling as the frauds have been in our past history, they are all surpassed in some respects by those perpetrated in the general election in the State, and especially in the city of New York.—These frauds were the result of a systematic plan of gigantic proportions, stealthily prearranged and boldly executed, not merely by bands of degraded desperadoes, but with the direct sanction, approval and aid of many prominent officials and citizens of New York, with shrewdly concealed connivance of others, and almost without an effort to discourage or prevent them by any of those in whose interest and political party associations they were successfully executed, who could not fail to have cognizance of them, and whose duty it was to expose, defeat and punish them. They were aided by corrupt and corrupting official patronage and power, which not only encouraged, but shielded and protected the guilty principals and their aiders and abettors. These frauds are so varied in character that they comprehend every known crime against the elective franchise. They corrupted the administration of justice, degraded the judiciary, defeated the execution of the laws, subverted for the time being, in New York State, the essential principles of popular government, robbed the people of that great State of their rightful choice of electors for President and Vice-President, of a Governor and other officers; disgraced the most populous city of our Union; encouraged the enemies of Republican government here and everywhere to deride our institutions as a failure, and endangered the peace of the Republic by an attempt to defeat the will of the people in the choice of their rulers.

The events of the past year in New York, and the evidence taken by the committee, furnish proof of all these allegations.—Among the most glaring of the frauds committed in the interest of the Democratic party, in the city and State of New York, in connection with the election in November, 1868, are these:—Many thousands of aliens fraudulently procured or were furnished with certificates of naturalization, illegally or fraudulently issued, by means of which they were enabled to register as voters, and voted in violation of law. Many hundreds of certificates of naturalization were granted in the names of fictitious persons, to be used by native born and naturalized citizens and aliens in falsely registering as voters, and to enable them to vote many times at the same election.

REPEATERS.

Many hundreds of persons voted in New York city from two to forty times or more, each under assumed or fictitious names, fraudulently registered for the purpose. Extensive frauds were committed in canvassing tickets, and names of voters were entered on poll lists, and Democratic tickets counted, as if voters representing them voted, when no such persons voted at all.

GROSS NEGLECT OF DUTY.

To accomplish these frauds gross neglect of duty and disregard of law, so great as to evince criminal purpose, prevailed in some of the courts; while the officers and Democratic partisans, of almost every grade, either by official influence, or otherwise, aided, sanctioned, or knew of, and failed to prevent them. The same influence shielded perpetrators in nearly all cases from detection and arrest; and when arrested, they have, through the agencies of judicial officers and others, charged with the duty of prosecution, escaped all punishment. Through these agencies the Democratic electors of President and Vice President and the Democratic candidate for Governor of the State of New York were fraudulently elected, and the investigations of the committee show that the existing State laws and mode of enforcing them, are wholly inadequate to prevent these frauds, but that Congress has power to enact laws which, if faithfully executed, will, to some extent furnish protection hereafter. There is no law of Congress professing to prevent or punish frauds in voting or conducting elections, and the penalties relating to certificates of naturalization are by no means adequate.

NATURALIZATION PAPERS.

The largest number of naturalization papers ever granted in one year, in New York city, before 1868, was in 1856, when only 16,493 were issued, while in 1868 there were 41,112 issued. The New York Democratic Printing Committee ordered, between September 16 and October 23, blank applications amounting to 105,000, and of certificates of naturalization, 69,000; in addition to this, other presses were running on blanks for other Democratic committees."

The report quotes the specific evidence of naturalization certificates fraudulently procured or issued in October, 1868, to persons never appearing in court. One witness swore that one hundred and fifty were sent to the Democratic Club at Peakskill and used. Papers were issued on fictitious names and used by repeaters. Frauds in blanked papers were not confined to New York, but extended over Orange, Ulster, Monroe, West Chester and other counties.

"Among the frauds practised under the Naturalization Laws were false personation of applicants for naturalization, perjury of witnesses under assumed names, fabrication of applications for naturalization, and others in support of them, with the names of applicants and witnesses forged; granting of certificates of naturalization in fictitious names, and on applications, regular in form, but without the presence of any applicants, and to persons not entitled to them; applicants for naturalization or those professing to represent them, with their witnesses, were sworn in groups, sometimes larger and sometimes smaller, and without any separate examination of such witnesses in the Supreme Court, not merely occasionally, but habitually,—are all proved beyond controversy.

EXTENT OF THE FRAUDS.

The committee estimate, from what is proved, that sixty-eight thousand three hundred and forty-three fraudulent certificates were issued in New York, Ulster, Monroe, Westchester, Rensalaer, Putnam, Green and Orange counties. The gigantic character of the conspiracy, covering so many counties and election polls, and the difficulties interposed by Democratic officials, have delayed and hindered a thorough examination. All that could be done was to prove, as the evidence does, that an organized system was perfected and carried into effect by the members of the Democratic party, to register many thousands of names, fictitious or assumed, and then to vote on them by hundreds of persons voting from two to forty times each for the Democratic candidates. There is evidence to show that it was part of the gigantic scheme of carrying the Democratic ticket in the State of New York by fraud; to delay the canvassing of the vote in the city until the result in the counties should be known; then to make up the deficiencies not supplied by repeating and other fraudulent voting, by stuffing the ballot boxes, and by a fraudulent canvass on the count of the vote.

CHARGES AGAINST GOVERNOR HOFFMAN.—The Mayor of the city, now Governor of the State, the Attorney-General of the State, District Attorney, now Mayor, and other distinguished officers, rendered invaluable aid. With the courts and officers of justice all controlled by men elected as Democrats, and with the vast official and personal influence of the dominant party in the city, men can escape all punishment for crime. Immunity and protection were promised repeatedly to those engaged in these election frauds.

REMEDIES PROPOSED.

"The committee recommend the withdrawal of naturalization from the New York city Courts, and offer a bill for that purpose; also, a bill amending the Naturalization laws, and recommend one day throughout the United States for the election of representatives in Congress, and providing for the contesting elections of the President and Vice President, and a Constitutional amendment authorizing Congress to regulate the appointment of President and Vice President directly by the people, or by electors chosen by single districts."

SECRET ASSASSINATION.

The Mysterious Air-Gun—The Silent Bullet.

Over a year ago, at one o'clock in the morning, a Brooklyn police officer was carelessly sauntering down his usual beat, when he observed a man partly hidden behind a tree on the opposite side of the street. The officer stopped and carefully observed the man's movements. In a few moments a man was observed coming up the sidewalk opposite. The man behind the tree stepped from his place of concealment and walked down the street to meet the stranger, the police officer still closely watching him. When the suspicious person was within twenty feet of the stranger, and near a gas light burning brightly beneath the trees, the stranger suddenly slapped his forehead with his right hand, and fell to the pavement—a dead man. His murderer began to rifle his pockets. The officer hastened at once to the spot, but the assassin saw him and fled.

The officer pursued him. The chase was hot. Around corners, across half paved streets, through slums and alleys, over high boarded fences, and beneath gas lights, the murderer fled, but a keen-eyed hunter was on his track. He was captured. On his line of flight an air-gun of peculiar construction was found. It had done its deadly work silently and effectually. It was of simple mechanicism, and could hardly be considered a marvel of mechanical skill.

The assassin turned out to be one Skidmore, a discharge policeman. In his house evidence was found which proved that he had been engaged for several years in nefarious schemes of burglary and murder. Brooklyn was thrown into a state of nervous excitement. The air gun was regarded with the greatest curiosity, and those inspecting it handled it with circumspection, fearful that a silent bullet was only waiting a signal to add another to its roll of victims. Skidmore cut his throat in his cell and thus escaped the jibbet. We do not know what became of the air gun, but we do know that for weeks afterwards many of the citizens of Brooklyn never dared go from their houses at night for fear of a silent straggling bullet.

Again we have accounts of shooting with the air gun—this time in New York. A week or two ago we had to announce the serious injury, by a stray bullet, of a young man walking at midday on the corner of Broadway and Canal street. The cause was a mystery which has never been explained. On Tuesday afternoon, in two diverse localities, there occured circumstances fortunately less injurious in their effect, but hardly less mysterious in their nature, which seem to point with equal assurance to the diabolical agent, an air gun. Two bullets in quick succession crashed through the windows of a grocery at the intersection of the Bowery and Bond streets. With as little warning a pistol ball entered through the plate-glass doorway of 310 Broadway, with dangerous force. A young man employed in Chittenden's drygoods store was walking down Broadway, Wednesday afternoon, and felt something hit his arm. On arrival at the store he ascertained that he had been shot through the arm by a bullet, which had lodged and remained in his side. Where the bullet came from, who fired it, or for what—all these points remain secret. On Monday an air gun bullet was fired through a pawnbroker's window in Centre street. On the same evening one of these silent messengers of death came through a window in the Sun's editorial rooms, and one evening last week two bullet holes were found in the pains in Mr. Thomas Hitchcock's residence, a 8 East twenty-ninth street. Wither are we tending?

GRANT AND BISMARCK.—The Prime Minister and chief agent in the recent military exploits of Prussia, Count Bismarck, has written a letter, acknowledging the receipt, through Baron Gerolt, of the first volume of the "Life of General Grant," recently published. Bismarck writes to General Grant as follows: "I hasten to return you my hearty thanks for a work which promises me the enjoyment of reviewing in a succient shape that gigantic struggle, the varying phases of which I followed at the time with intense interest. It will be a permanent source of gratification and pride to think that for the volume now open before me I am indebted to the kind and sympathetic feelings of the very man who took Vicksburg and Richmond. May peace, restored by you, afford equal scope to your powers with equal benefits to your country, and may the present interchange of friendly sentiments between us prove a good augury for the continuance of those relations so happily established between America and Germany."

A STORY is told of McKean Buchanan, who is said to be one of the finest "poker" players in the world. While in Australia a few years since, Mr. Buchanan had a thrifty, speculative agent, who took the money at the door and generally kept it. The tragedian couldn't well afford to dispense with the man's services for so trifling a matter, so he artfully inoculated the speculative agent with a mania for this game of poker, and when the agent had captured all the money at night Mr. Buchanan would skilfully and unfailingly win it all away from him during the next day.

THE Emperor of the French is said to be more embarrassed by his private indebtedness than even previous to the coup d'etat. Both he and the Empress have been living for the past fifteen years far beyond their means, and all of Eugenie's private property is heavily mortgaged. She never thinks of the rainy days which may be in store for her in the future, but is as extravagant as if the French exchequer were inexhaustible, and the Imperial dynasty not founded on sand, but sure to reign for centuries to come.

A WOMAN in very reduced circumstances was recently admitted to the Poughkeepsie almshouse. Shortly after a male vagrant was also taken in, who manifested such an attachment for the woman that his affection was reciprocated, and an elopement planned and carried out. It now appears that the woman had fallen heir to some $20,000 and that her romantic suitor had learned of it—procured a commitment to the almshouse and won the prize.

AN honest Hibernian whose bank pocket to use his own phrase, had stopped payment, was forced to the sad necessity of perambulating the streets two nights together, for the want of a few pence to pay his lodging; when, accidentally [illegible] the lying-in hospital, he cried, "That's the place for me, for I have been lying out these two nights past."

NOTHING LIKE IT IN MEDICINE.

It has long been claimed that if we knew it, there would be an herb, or a combination of herbs, roots and barks that would cure all the ills human flesh is heir to. Dr. Mishler, with a few of his professional friends, have kept this idea constantly in view, and labored earnestly and perseveringly for years to find this most desirable treasure. Though they have not found an instant cure for all complaints, they have never failed in curing Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia and all diseases arising from any impurity of the blood or disarrangement of the digestive organs, including Liver Complaint, Coughs, Colds, Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, General Debility and all affections of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs.

This great discovery, in honor of the indefatigable labors of Dr. B. Mishler, is called Mishler's Herb Bitters, and wherever introduced takes the place of Quinine and the host of other remedies used heretofore for the complaints mentioned above.

ARE NOW COMPLETED.

As 500 miles of the western portion of the line, beginning at Sacramento, are also done, but

267 MILES REMAIN

To be Finished, to Open the Grand Through Line to the Pacific. This Opening will certainly take place early this season.

Besides a donation from the Government of 12,800 acres of land per mile, the Company is entitled to a subsidy in U. S. Bonds on its line as completed and accepted, at the average rate of about $26,500 per mile, according to the difficulties encountered, for which the Government takes a second lien as security. Whether subsides are given to any other companies or not, the Government will comply with all its contracts with the Union Pacific Railroad Company. Nearly the whole amount of bonds to which the Company will be entitled have already been delivered.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS AT PAR.

By its charter, the Company is permitted to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS to the same amount as the Government Bonds, and no more. These Bonds are a First Mortgage upon the centre road and all its equipments.

THEY HAVE THIRTY YEARS TO RUN, AT SIX PER CENT., and both

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ARE PAYABLE IN GOLD.

Such securities are generally valuable in proportion to the length of time they have to run. The longest six per cent. gold interest bonds of the U. S. (the '61's) will be due in 12 years, and they are worth 112. If they had 30 years to run, they would stand at not less than 125. A perfectly safe First Mortgage Bond like the Union Pacific should approach this rate. The demand for European investment is already considerable, and on the completion of the work will doubtless carry the price to a large premium.

SECURITY OF THE BONDS.

It needs no argument to show that a First Mortgage of $26,500 per mile upon what for a long time must be the only railroad connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States is PERFECTLY SECURE. The entire amount of the mortgage will be about $30,000,000, and the interest $1,800,000 per annum in gold. The present currency cost of this interest is less than $2,500,000 per annum, while the gross earnings for the year 1868, FROM WAY BUSINESS ONLY, ON AN AVERAGE OF LESS THAN 700 MILES OF ROAD IN OPERATION, WERE MORE THAN FIVE MILLION DOLLARS.

The details of which are as follows:

From Passengers	$1,024,005.97
" Freight	2,040,233.19
" Express	51,423.08
" Mails	136,235.59
" Miscellaneous	91,626.27
" Government troops	104,077.77
" " freight	449,440.33
" Contractors' men	201,179.09
" " material	966,430.32
Total	$5,066,651.61

This large amount is only an indication of the immense traffic that must go over the through line in a few months, when the great tide of Pacific coast travel and trade will begin. It is estimated that this business must make the earnings of the road from FIFTEEN TO TWENTY MILLIONS A YEAR.

As the supply of these Bonds will soon cease, parties who desire to invest in them will find it for their interest to do so at once. The price for the present is par and accrued interest from Jan. 1, in currency.

Subscriptions will be received in GETTYSBURG by the

FIRST NATIONAL BANK and GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK,
and in New York
AT THE COMPANY'S OFFICE, NO. 20 NASSAU ST.
AND BY
JOHN J. CISCO & SON, BANKERS, No. 59 WALL St.,
And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Bonds sent free, but parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP was issued October 1st, containing a report of the progress of the work to that date, and a more complete statement in relation to the value of the bonds than can be given in an advertisement, which will be sent free on application at the company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, Feb. 26, 1869.

☞ ABRAHAM FICKES, near New Chester, offers at Private Sale, some valuable Live Stock. See advertisement.

☞ There will be service in the Church at Hunterstown on Sabbath morning, Feb. 28th, at the usual hour of morning worship.

LOST.—On Monday evening last, on York or Baltimore street a Gold Breast pin, set with Coral. The finder will please return it to this office.

☞ JACOB F. THOMAS, of Straban township, (Granite Hill P. O.,) has been appointed Agent for the Howe Sewing Machine in Adams County. See advertisement.

KATALYSINE.—The popularity of the Gettysburg Katalysine Spring Water is attested by the fact that the sales from February to November, 1868, nine months, amounted to $70,000.

☞ In the House, last week, Dr. DILL presented a petition from ninety-seven citizens of the borough of Littlestown, Adams county, remonstrating against the passage of the act authorizing the school directors to sell certain real estate and borrow money in said borough.

LICENSES.—All intending to apply for Tavern or Restaurant Licenses at the April Court should see to getting blank petitions and bonds in time. They are to be had of the Clerk of Courts, Mr. A. W. Minter. The names of the applicants for licenses are required to be published three weeks before Court.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Mr. AMOS REBERT, of Straban township, met with a severe accident at Lower's mill on the 11th inst. He was engaged in hauling saw logs, and whilst unloading a heavy one, it got the start of him, the butt end striking his side and hip. No bones were broken, but painful bruises caused. Dr. O'Neal gave the case prompt attention.—Compiler.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have so frequently announced the rule of this office to pay no attention to anonymous articles, that it ought by this time to be known to every reader. Yet we are in constant receipt of communications of this kind, giving simply initials without the full name—all of which go into the waste basket without examination. If correspondents desire us to entertain their suggestions they must send in their full name, which can, if desired, be withheld in publication. We hope this rule will be remembered by one and all.

INTERESTING.—We notice a statement going the rounds of our exchanges, perhaps not generally known, but interesting to young men, to the effect that the solitary ringlet, which floats from so many waterfalls, is a notification on the part of the wearers that they are not engaged. If it is extremely long, the wearer is supposed to be very desirous of getting spliced at once; if only moderately long, it shows that only good offers will be entertained; an extremely short, meagre ringlet indicates that the wearer is very particular as to whom she accepts.

SALES.—Capt. John Horner has sold his farm in Mountjoy township, 180 acres, to Mr. J. Fowbler, of Baltimore county, Md., at $60 per acre.

Capt. I. R. Shipley has sold his farm in Reading township, 106 acres, with improvements, to E. L. Larsh and Cornelius Webb, of York county, for $5,000 cash; also to same parties personal property to amount of $1,000.

John M. Minnigh has purchased from Daniel Skelly, a half lot of ground near the west end of Chambersburg street, at $275. Mr. M. intends building a two-story frame dwelling house thereon during the coming spring.

ANSWERED.—Some time ago a correspondent of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" inquired for the authorship and correct reading of the line so often quoted, "Tempora mutantur," &c. The senior editor referred the inqury to the New York Observer, and a correspondant of that paper, under date of Feb. 18, says the correct reading is—

"Omnia mutantur, nos et mutamur in illis." It occurs in the writings of Nicholas Barbonius, a Latin poet, a favorite of Francis I., and who was cotemporary with Sir Thomas Moore, Erasmus, and others. His poems were first published in 1540."

LARGE YIELD.—A correspondent inform us that last season JACOB C. SCHRIVER farmed in corn a 12 acre field for WARNER TOWNSEND, of York Springs district, which yielded 651½ bushels of shelled corn, besides the short corn that was fed on the cob. The peculiarity of the case lies on the fact that this field has had no lime since 1844, when it was limed at the rate of 60 bushels to the acre. The corn last season was raised with ordinary farming, no manure or stimulant being used except a little Plaster dropped on each hill after the corn had come up.

HOMICIDE.—On Tuesday morning last our people were startled by the announcement that a young man, named THOMAS LEE, had been killed the previous evening on "Wolf Hill," about two miles southeast of town, by WEEMS BLACK. It seems that Lee and Black had been for some time making the widow Rosensteel's house, on "Wolf Hill," their head quarters. Lee has been attending various sales this spring, selling cakes, beer, &c. On Monday night he returned from a sale near New Oxford, and retired to bed at an early hour. About 10 o'clock, Black roused Lee, saying that some person was at the stable, where Lee had a horse. The parties went out, Black taking with him a loaded musket. In a short time the explosion of the gun was heard and Black returned to the house, saying that Lee had accidentally been shot. Several of the neighbors were aroused, but strange to say, although the homicide took place at 10 o'clock on Monday night, no arrest was made and no steps taken for a judicial investigation until Tuesday noon, the body of Lee lying all the time where he was killed, at the stable door. On Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock, Sheriff Hann heard of the matter and arrested Black, and made complaint before Justice Myers. An Inquisition was held at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, by Justice Myers, the Jury rendering a verdict that Lee had come to his death by a gunshot wound from a gun in the hands of Weems Black; whereupon Black was committed to await futher judicial proceedings. Dr. O'Neal made a careful exammination of the wounds, by which it seems the muzzle of the gun, when discharged, must have been close to Lee's head, the neck being blackened and the hair singed with powder. The contents, five or six large buck shot, entered the neck passing up through the jaw and coming out on the opposite side of the head.

As the case will undergo judicial investigation, we withhold the numerous theories and suggestions afloat in regard to the homicide. It is proper to say that Black claims that the killing was the result of an accident—that Lee was about to open the stable door, he following close in his rear with the gun cocked, when it was accidentally discharged. He made no attempt to escape during the night and made no resistance when arrested. On the other hand it is said that there had been previous difficulty between Lee and Black, and that the latter had made threats against the former. Black had loaded the gun during the afternoon of Monday. Lee, as already stated, had been attending a sale during the day, and started home with some $25 or $30 in his pocket. No money was found on his person after the homicide, and what became of it is not known.

FREDERICK AND PA. LINE RAILROAD.—The Frederick Republican of the 23d inst., has a lengthy communnication urging the susperior advantages of building this road by way of the west bank of the Monocacy, with a view to extension to Gettysburg via Emmittsburg. The writer claims that this route will be less expensive and more certain of paying than the other route leading to Littlestown. The College and Sisterhood at Emmittsburg, the Literary and Theological Institutions at Gettysburg, the National Cemetery, Katalysine Springs, &c., the writer holds must develope trade and travel and give importance to the Emmittsburg route which few dream of. We extract the following reference to our town:

Gettysburg is the shire town of Adams county, and there are many pleasant recollections connected with it, and ample reasons can be given why it should be the terminus on the "Dixie" side of the Frederick and Pennsylvania line railroad. The Gettysburg College and Theological Seminary, under the control of a large and influential body of Christians, constantly increasing in numbers, are the centre of Lutheranism in the United States, and possess a powerful link of gravitation and union. These institutions are presided over by Dr. Valentine and other eminent professors, men well versed in literary and religious polemics. Hundreds of students of collegiate honors and preparation for the holy ministry annually seek their classic walls. They are well known throughout the country, and have a strong claim for support upon the religious community of that particular faith, as well as others who are concerned in the advancement of highly endowed Literary Institutions. Then there are the Katalysine Springs, discovered but a year or two ago, the water of which has attained a wonderful celebrity for its medicinal properties. Thousands of bottles are put up daily and sent abroad all over the United States.—The proprietors of these springs, composed of some of the wealthiest men of New York, intend the coming Spring and Summer to erect two large hotels and a number of cottages, and so adorn and beautify the grounds, as to make it excel Saratoga as a watering place. These springs will attract an immense throng to visit Gettysburg.

Then there is the National Monument to be erected this Summer, by the Board of Directors on the Cemetery grounds, to commemorate the celebrated battles of the 1st, 2d and 3d July, 1863, which will be more famous and of more lasting renown than the battle fields of Marengo, Lodi or Waterloo. From 8 to 10,000 soldiers of the Union and Confederate armies were killed on these memorable days, within this consecrated ground. Thousands and millions of the present and untold future will visit this renowned Battle Field, now the most famous of any in the war of the rebellion.

PHILOMATHÆAN ANNIVERSARY.—Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather, Agricultural Hall was well filled on Monday evening last, on the occasion of the Anniversary Exercises of the Philomathæan Society of Pennsylvania College. We annex the programme;

Prayer—By Rev. C. A. Hay, D. D.
Music—"Sweet the hour when freed from labor."
Where, Whither and How?—Jacob Neff, Philadelphia
National Greatness—J. W. Finkbiner, Vincent.
Music—"Deeds of Marion's Men."
Imagination—W. S. Heindel, York.
The Study of the Past—J. J. Brinkerhoff, Gettysburg.
Music—"Now at moonlight's fairy hour."
Greatness of the Mind—J. A. Clutz, Taneytown, Md.
Music—F. R. Feitshans, Indiana.
Music—"Marseilles Hymn."
The Beautiful and the True—J. W. Hunrichouse, Baltimore, Md.
A Poem—"If I Faller"—E. T. Horn, Catasauqua.
Music—"Good Night."
Benediction—By Rev. J. A. Brown, D. D.

The young gentlemen all acquitted themselves creditably—the different addresses being characterized by originality and vigorous thought, good style, and excellent elocution. We were especially pleased with the absence of the affectation and stage effect which often mar College performances. In this respect the exercises on Monday night were a decided success—terse, vigorous style, correct sentiment, easy and natural delivery, being the characteristics.

The Music—furnished by a select choir of amateur vocalists, Miss ALICE BAUGHER presiding at the piano—deserves special notice, as a leading feature of the evening, and in itself a capital entertainment.—"Sweet the hour when freed from labor," "Now at moonlight's fairy hour," and "Good Night," as rendered on Monday night, were real musical gems, while "Deeds of Marion's men," and "Marseilles Hymn," especially the magnificent chorus of the latter, "brought down the house." By the way, we like this idea of substituting vocal for instrumental music on these occasions, and hope it will be continued.

DAMAGE CLAIMS.—Our neighbors of Franklin county are moving actively and systematically in the matter of their claims for damages sustained during the war. A meeting was held in Chambersburg on the 18th inst., and a committee of three from the borough of Chambersburg and from each township appointed to collect funds to defray necessary expenses. B. F. Nead, Jacob R. Smith and John Huber were appointed an Executive and Corresponding Committee, to correspond with persons in other counties who sustained losses, in order to secure concert of action. It was resolved that claimants be requested to contribute one-fourth of one per cent. (or 25 cents on $100,) of the amount of their repective claims, to defray expenses.

An adjourned meeting is to be held in Chambersburg on the first Monday of June, at which the various Committees are to report. The Executive Committee was directed to prepare petitions to the Legislature for circulation among the people.

Would it not be well for the claimants in Adams county to take steps to co-operate in this movement? If payment of the claims are to be secured, it must be through active and concerted effort on the part of those interested.

AN ADAMS COUNTY BOY.—Among the Members elect to the Forty-first Congress, is Hon. JOEL F. ASPER, of Missouri, whose father, ABRAHAM ASPER, emigrated from York Springs, this county, in 1827, to Trumbull county, Ohio, and who died in 1865, aged 86 years. Joel was a youth when his parents emigrated, and worked on the farm in Ohio, getting such an education as the facilities then existing afforded. He studied law, was admitted to the Bar, and practised in Trumbull county 20 years. At the breaking out of the Rebellion, he entered the army, and served as an officer in the Seventh Ohio till his health failed, and he was mustered out of service from disability in 1863. About four years and a half ago, he removed to Missouri, and last fall was elected to Congress from the Seventh District, receiving a majority of 3,029 over Hon. M. Oliver, formerly M. C. Mr. ASPER recently paid our town and County a visit. He is in the prime of life, and in vigorous health, and has before him a future full of promise. Of course, he is a Republican.

THE NEW WINDSOR ROBBERY.—Dectives Young and Irving, of New York, last week succeeded in arresting in that city two men, named James McQuade and James Weaver, charged with robbing the New Windsor Bank, in Carroll county, Md. The detectives worked up the case, traced the robbers to that city, and learning that McQuade & Weaver were in a house in the lower part of the city, made a descent on it. Irving sprang through a window and surprised the men, while Captain John S. Young kept watch outside. One of the men drew a revolver, and attempted to shoot Irving, but the weapon was knocked out of the ruffian's grasp.—About $99,500 of the stolen bonds were recovered.

PUZZLES.—ANSWERS.

We have received several additional solutions for the Egg problem, but not differing from those given last week—all being correct.

We have also received several answers to the Weight problem, all correct, viz:—the four weights weighed severally 1, 3, 9 and 27 pounds.

The following additional Problems have been sent in:

Three boys went to Market with eggs. One had 10, one 30, and the other 50 eggs. The eggs were all sold—each boy securing for his eggs the same price per egg that the others received. Yet, on counting up their money each boy found he had 10 cents, neither more nor less. Can any of your young readers solve the problem? M—r.

A young man asked an old man for his daughter in marriage. The answer was: "Go into the orchard and bring in a number of apples. Give me one-half of the whole number and the mother half of the balance and half an apple over, and to the daughter one half of the remainder and half an apple over, and have one left for yourself; but see to it that you do not cut an apple. Then, if she is willing, you can have her." The young man solved the problem and won his bride. How many apples did he bring. R.

A PUZZLE.—Take nine from six; ten from nine; fifty from forty—and have six for a remainder. Answer next week. J. W. F.

THE MORNING GLORY.—Col. C. H. BUEHLER has received a large assortment of these famous base-burning Stoves, which on the score of economy, cleanliness, easy management, and general utility stand unrivalled and defy competition. The great demand for them last season taxed the capacity of the Manufacturers to meet the demand. They are much improved and will doubtless ere long take the place of all other stoves for parlor, office, store and shop. Call and look at them, at the Wareroom on corner of Carlisle and Railroad street, opposite the depot.

Also, on hand a full assortment of the best varieties of COOKING STOVES, including the Spear, Noble Cook, Waverly, Oriental, Washing, Barley Sheaf, Prince Royal, Royal Cook, Excelsior, &c. &c., all WARRANTED to be good bakers. If not satisfactory, they can be returned and the money refunded. Also, a large assortment of Hollow Ware and Tin Ware, Doty's Washing Machine and Universal Wringer. Call and examine. tf

HEAD QUARTERS REMOVED.—Capt. NORRIS, has removed his store to Arnold's Corner, next door to the 1st National Bank, where you will find one of the best and cheapest Stock of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, and Shoes, and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods of every discription, in the county. He is selling Winter Clothing at greately reduced prices to make room for Spring Goods. If you want a BARGAIN go to NORRIS' corner. All kinds of Men's and Boy's Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes as cheap as before the War. If you don't believe this, call and be convinced.—Don't forget the place. tf.

JUST THE THINGS—Wanted by every Housekeeper, and when once tried will not be dispensed with. We mean, of course, the Patent Press and Strainer for lard, tallow, cider, apples, tomatoes, pumpkins, potatoes, berries, jellies, jam, &c.,—and the Patent Tack Driver, for streching and tacking Carpets at the same time. They are both ingenious contrivances, and should be in every family. To be had at Col. Buehler's Ware-room, Carlisle street, opposite Depot. tf

GREAT SURPRISE.—We were astonished the other day in passing Arnold's old corner. NORRIS has changed his base to this corner, and is surprising every body that visits him by his large and cheap Stock of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., &c. Give him a call. tf.

HOUSEKEEPERS, and all others wanting anything in the house-keeping line, will do well to call at Col. C. H. BUEHLER'S extensive Ware-room, near the Passenger depot, on Carlisle street, who has on hand a very large assortment of Stoves of the best manufacture, Cooking, Parlor, Office, and Chamber Stoves, for wood or Coal; also Hollow Ware, Tin Ware, Japan Ware, Britannia Ware, Bird Cages, and a general assortment of Kitchen utensils. Also Coal and Lumber of all kinds.

THERE is a model farm in Mower county, Minnesota. It is owned by William Buck, who settled in Racine township in 1856.—He had sufficient means to purchase 480 acres of land at government prices, upon which he went to work. His labor was reasonably rewarded. After seven years of hard toil and economical living, he began the erection of a handsome residence, which he finished in 1864. His barn will accommodate 160 head of horses and cattle, 225 tons of hay, and the bins will hold 10,000 bushels of grain. The upper floors are laid with two inch plank. Mr. Buck last year sold $6,000 worth of stock, and has now on hand some 50 head of horses and 40 head of cattle. He has under plough 220 acres, besides 120 acres in timothy.

I want to rouse each sleepy head,
Who stand upon the brink,
Where yawning gulfs disclose the dead,
Who might, but did not, think.

I want to warn the living ones
Who blindly grope along,
Ye fathers, daughters, mothers, sons,
What perils round you throng!

Look out, my reader, are you free,
Or do you wear the mark?
Most all are blind and cannot see,
Yes, groping in the dark.

Catarrh, a demon in the head,
Consumption is its son;
Kills hosts, yes, countless millions, dead,
Perhaps you may be one.

That hacking, hawking, spitting, shows,
Catarrh affects your head,
Matter and slime in throat or nose,
Runs down your throat instead.

Your lungs and liver soon will show,
Consumption has its birth;
Catarrh, its sire, will feed it too,
'Till you return to earth.

If colds affect your head and throat,
ANNIHILATOR buy;
Now don't forget what I have wrote,
Or think this subject dry.

WOLCOTT'S ANNIHILATOR cures
Catarrh—the demon flies;
It saves the lungs, good health insures,
And Catarrh quickly dies.

I want to gratify my friends,
Who wish to understand
About PAIN PAINT, its use, its ends,
And why its great demand.

I want to show you, plain as day,
Why PAIN PAINT stops all pain,
That you may never have to say
"I'll not try paint again."

PAIN PAINT will cool but never stain;
Pumps inflammation out;
'Tis harmless on the breast or brain,
A trial stops all doubt,

When inflammation leaves the frame,
All pain will cease at once;
Remove the cause, 'tis all the same;
None doubts unless a dunce.

The pores will ope and drink PAIN PAINT;
Absorbents fill with ease;
Restores the weak, the sick, the faint,
The greatest skeptic please.

Evaporation cools the place
As inflammation flies,
Hot blood of the absorbent's base
Makes PAIN in vapor rise.

'Tis thus PAIN PAINT removes all doubt,
Removes the very cause
By pumping inflammation out;
On this we rest our cause.

Wolcott's Pain Paint is sold at all Drug Stores; also, Wolcott's Annihilator, for the cure of Catarrh and Colds in the head. Sent by Express on receipt of the money, at 181 Chatham Square, N. Y. R. L. Wolcott, Proprietor. [Feb. 26.—4w

FARMERS,
Fruit Growers & Gardners.
Best's "Improved Patent Fruit Tree Invigorator and Vine Insect Destroyer."

THIS is truly one of the greatest discoveries ever made—combining the most useful ingredients ever known for fruit, grain and general vegetation. As a fertilizer, it has no equal. When applied to the tree it penetrates every pore—destroying every species of insect, and the worm in the heart of the tree or plant—connecting with the mineral substance of the earth, destroys the cause and prevents the creation of any destructive insect. It will prevent Curculio from stinging the plum. It will kill the peach grub. It will loosen the knot and old bark on the vine and tree—slough off the spots and re-bark the stock. In a word, it renovates the whole tree and gives it healthy [illegible] to withstand the severity of the weather and retain its fruit. It will destroy all insects which infest the pot-flowers, cucumbers, potatoes, tomatoes, plants, &c. and stimulate their growth. It will prevent weevil, mildew, rust or the fly from touching the wheat, and the cut worm from the corn. It is now extensively used in the Western States, and persons who use it would not be without it for one thousand times its value. No man who has a single fruit tree can afford to be without it. Upon application, we will refer to persons who are using it in Berks county, and would not take $1000 for their recipe, we will give residence and address. The undersigned have purchased the sole right to use, sell and apply the Invigorator, within the counties of York, Cumberland, Adams, Franklin, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, Lehigh and Philadelphia City and county, and are now prepared to sell townships or county rights. Persons who have purchased townships have made as high as $50 to $100 per day selling farm rights at from $5 to $10 per recipe.

ADAMS COUNTY, PA.

AGREEABLY to an act of Assembly, entitled "An act to raise County Rates and Levies," requiring the Commissioners of the respective counties to publish a statement of the Receipts and Expenditures yearly; we, the Commissioners of Taxes of said county, do report as follows, to wit: from the 7th day of January, A. D. 1868, to the 6th day of January, A. D. 1869, both days inclusive:

H. D. WATTLES, Esq., Treasurer, and the Commissioners, in account with the county of Adams, as follows:

BARN-YARD MANURE.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It has often occurred to me that our common method of preserving (?) manure and restoring it to the soil from whence it is derived, is, to say the least, defective and open to grave objections; and in my consideration of this important subject I will endeavor to sustain my objections by accepted facts and such reasoning as may at least, I hope, merit the consideration the subject demands. I allude to the practice of allowing the manure to lie in the barn-yard until it is thoroughly rotted, and then hauled into the field to be exposed to an August sun for some days, or weeks perhaps, before it is turned under by the plough.

Decomposition, decay, or as Liebig calls it, eremacausis, (slow combustion) of vegetable substances under ordinary circumstances, commences immediately after the vital principle ceases to affect the organic bodies it pervaded, and the particles of which they were composed, obeying the laws of chemical attraction, separate in order to form new combinations of a simpler character than those which characterized it in the living structure. This decay, or slow combustion, is almost identically the same as ordinary combustion except only in its being much less rapidly accomplished; and is attended with the evolution of heat, and sometimes with light—the heat being the same in amount undoubtedly as in ordinary combustion.

Vegetables are composed of a variety of compounds called proximate principles, which themselves are capable of separation into ultimate or simple elements. The proximate principles of plants are divided into two classes, called azotized and non-azotized compounds; the former containing nitrogen as a constituent principle, and in consequence are capable of generating ammonia, with sulphuretted and phosphuretted hydrogen, which are recognized by the offensive odor given off during the decomposition of nitrogenized or albuminous substances, all very important properties of vegetables nutrition.

Non-azotized substances, such as vegetable tissue, starch, sugar, &c., to the contrary, do not contain nitrogen as a principle of their composition, and in consequence cannot of themselves produce ammonia, but by decomposition are converted into carbonic acid and water, also most valuable as nourishment in sustaining plant life.

Humus, or vegetable would, possesses the valuable property of absorbing and retaining ammonia, and even to a certain extent of forming it from the nitrogen of the atmosphere, and at least ten per cent of it is absolutely necessary to render soil productive. On an average, soil contains but five per cent., but our best soils contain from twenty-five to fifty per cent. of humus.

When decomposition commences, the nitrogenous compounds being of a more complex nature, decompose much more rapidly than the non-azotized, and from this fact the ammonia and other most valuable but volatile principles, are disengaged long before the less destructive compounds are consumed. This leads me to believe that we sustain an immense loss of the most valuable properties of our manure heap while it lies in the barn-yard undergoing the first stages of decomposition, and its subsequent exposure in the field before being ploughed under.

The question then presented is, would it not be better to plough under our vegetable material in the spring before the heat and rains of summer have to any extent promoted decomposition; as it is well known that cold very much retards decay, and in consequence but little waste occurs during the winter; and allowing this decomposition to take place in contact with the mineral constituents of the soil, many of which are altered by it.

It is this fact, in my mind, that renders green crops so valuable in improving land when ploughed under in the early part of summer, as the bulk and weight would be but little in comparison to the amount of straw, hay, fodder, &c., that enter into the composition of the manure heap, and yet appears so much more effective. Some scientific farmers use plaster or sulphate of lime sprinkled over their manure heap to retard decomposition by means of the sulphuric acid it contains, but quick-lime ought never be used, as it promotes decomposition and disengages ammonia, &c.—The greatest plea to overcome is its inconvenience, which I will admit, but if it can be made appear, that the same material ploughed into the soil and allowed to decompose, is worth three or four times, or even one half more than it is in the rotted state, what enterprising, or to use your own expression, "wide-a-wake" farmer, would not be willing to put himself to some inconvenience to secure so valuable an interest.

FARMER.

WINDOW PLANTS FOR WINTER.—There is a tact in devising ornaments for the sitting room and an aptness in caring for growing things that cannot be taught to any one as the multiplication table. But it is a clear duty of all housekeepers to learn every art they can for making home pleasant. The watching and taking an interest in birds and plants is worth much to children. Here are some hints from the Ploughman, that will help some of our readers to pretty sitting room adornments:

Ivy may be trained about your picture frames, to creep over the mantle and windows, or to form a border of the paper around the room, close to the ceiling. The most brilliant flowers do not give so pretty an effect to a room as a thrifty, climbing ivy. Wandering Jew, Myrtle, &c., grow well when hung in the window, and the effect of the gracefully drooping sprigs is extremely pleasing, both outside the house and in it.

Turnips and carrots scooped out, filled with earth, planted with canary seed or chicken weed, and suspended by strings in the window, are very pretty. The leaves sprout from the root, underneath, and the plants spring from the seed, simultaneously. Beside the pretty effect, your birds, if you keep them, can have a feast through the winter upon vegetation.

A common pine cone planted in its several crevices with canary seed, and placed half-way in water in a hyacinth water-glass, is another original and very effectual flower vase. For hanging vases, you can make for yourself highly ornamental ones. Bread-baskets, sea-shells, with three holes drilled for a cord, are very pretty; a common wooden chop-basin covered with little knotted branches, gnarled joints, dried fungi, &c., the whole highly varnished, is as picturesque and ornamental a vase as can be desired.

GOOD ROADS.—What an American invests in horses and mules an Englishman invests in good roads, and the latter investment, in the long run, is the better. An American horse expends his life in dragging loads through holes and up inhuman grades; his efficiency, and consequently his value, is reduced one half to his owner. Permanent and perfect roads in any section would more than double the value of the resident horse flesh. A mile of good macadamized road is more easily kept in order than a horse—so, at least, calculates a careful writer on the small economy of life, and the interest is potent. Owners of good horses should be the last to complain of road tax. Under the present system of our roads their horses are over worked, and sooner or later crippled. Beyond this immediate question arises the future one of desirability of a permanent investment in roads, to a perishable one in stock.

Roth's Improvement for Opening, Closing and Latching Gates,

MAY be attached to any gate and operated from buggy, team or saddle, by one hand, in any desired direction from the gate—opened and closed from one point, at any distance from the gate. This improvement is simple and cheap, yet perfect and strong; will not be disarranged by the sagging of the gate, nor by the frost raising the posts; may be made at a country blacksmith's, and easily attached to a gate. The undersigned, having the Right for Adams county, will sell Township and Farm Rights of this improvement.

Also, ROTH & SHANE'S AMERICAN LEVER GATE

—which will be found valuable and convenient to all who have gates to drive through—as they remain by their team, open, close and latch a gate, without the necessity of getting in the wet or mud.

ZINGARI BITTERS.

A SAFE BLOOD PURIFIER,
A SPLENDID TONIC,
A PLEASANT BEVERAGE.
A CERTAIN CURE
AND PREVENTIVE OF DISEASES.

The ZINGARI BITTERS are compounded from a prescription of the celebrated Egyptian physician DR. CHEOPEUS, who, after years of trial and experiment, discovered the Zingarini Herb—the most remarkable vegetable production the earth, perhaps, has ever yielded—certainly the most effective in the cure of disease. It, in combination with other valuable properties of which the ZINGARI BITTERS is composed, will cure

Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Cholic, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption in its first stage, Flatulency, Nervous Debility, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Dysentery, Acute and Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scrofula, Diseases of the Kidneys, Habitual Costiveness, &c., &c.

In the PREVENTION and CURE of the above diseases, it has never been known to fail, as thousands of our most prominent citizens throughout all parts of the country, will testify. Let the afflicted send for circular containing testimonials and certificates of those who have been cured after their cases have been pronounced hopeless by our best physicians.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

THE GREAT

Invigorator and Restorer
OF THE
Vitality of the Stomach.

Prepared from Pure Vegetable Materials.

Pure Tonics and the most Pleasant Aromatics.

This invaluable Remedy for Dyspepsia and General Debility of the system is offered to the public, after a fair trial of its merits, with entire confidence that it will command their approval. It has been submitted, with the materials which compose it, to practicing Physicians—among others to Dr. M. D. G. PFEIFFER, one of our oldest and most eminent Physicians, residing at New Oxford, who, after examination, pronounced it a Remedy which would not fail to show its salutary effects, when properly administered, in cases of dyspepsia, springing from old age and debilitating effects of serious inward diseases—weakening, and at last destroying the nervous power of the stomach itself—and therefore entitling it to be emphatically called "The Great Invigorator."

Dr. W. J. McCLURE, another prominent Physician of New Oxford, thus gives his opinion:

NEW OXFORD, Dec. 30, 1868.

MR. JOHN BUSBEY.

Dear Sir:—At your request I have examined "The Great Invigorator," prepared by you, and the formula from which it is prepared. It is composed of some of the most powerful vegetable tonics and most pleasant aromatics known to our profession, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it in Chronic cases of Dyspepsia, and in all cases of Indigestion resulting from debility of the Stomach. Believing that, if properly used, it will be of incalculable benefit to the suffering of our race, I subscribe myself,

Yours, very respectfully,
W. J. McCLURE, M. D.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

The Great Desideratum of the Age.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for useful ness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

J. H. SHIREMAN'S
REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as

THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines:

Michael Fiscel,
Moses Hartman,
Joseph Wierman,
Ulrich Jacobs,
Jacob Hartman,
Stephen Gettier,
Mr. Sterner,
Mr. Linn,
J. R. Hershey
B. B. Woodburn.
Jacob Laman,

with others, too numerous to mention

This machine has a self-rake, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand. Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

A Word to the Wise!

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Renner's Chemical Fertilizer!

THE importance of a quick, active and durable Fertilizer, adapted to the soil of our county, is acknowledged by all Farmers. Having satisfied myself, after long study and careful experiment, that F. C. RENNER'S

Chemical Fertilizer

surpasses all others in adaptedness to all kinds of soil, I have purchased the right for Adams county, and am prepared to fill orders for it promptly and on reasonable terms. It is no humbug, but

HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY TRIED

by a number of our Farmers, and is admitted by all who have it to be the best in the market, and the cheapest. I am prepared to furnish this Fertilizer in any quantity, and will deliver

In any town or village in the County, when ordered in not less quantity than a TON. I manufacture it for sale at $50 per ton without bags, or $55 in bags. This fertilizer is composed of the best fertilizing chemicals that can be had. I use no oil of vitriol; it does not contain any ammonia, therefore I do not use it. Neither do I use lime nor ashes.

THE OBJECT OF THE CHEMICAL FERTILIZER

is to introduce a fertilizer that will last for a series of crops—not only for one. It contains sufficient animal matter to mature the grain and make it ripen early, while the ammonia forces the growth. I expect to manufacture a large supply this winter for the spring crops, and therefore invite farmers and the public generally to give it a trial on all kinds of Grains and Vegetables.

CAUTION.—I hereby give notice that Farm Rights hereafter sold, unless signed by me, are infringements on my Right, and will be prosecuted and dealt with according to law, from which there is no appeal.
